

The new 2020 calendar officialized

7 appointments for the next season, 6 concomitants for F4 and FRegional

Rome, September 16th, 2019 – Officialized the calendar of the next season' appointments for the Italian F4 Championship powered by Abarth and the Formula Regional European Championship certified by FIA. Seven appointments for the 2020 season as a confirm of the great success of this year Italian F4 Championship powered by Abarth, one of the most exciting and participated F4 championship in Europe. Eight appointments also for the new Formula Regional European Championship certified by FIA which, at its first year, is already convincing and fascinating the audience.

The new Formula Regional Tatuus will be back on track after having shown their great qualities during this year. To facilitate the participants and the logistics for the teams, ACI Sport and WSK Promotion decided to aggregate as much as possible the two formulas: 6 appointments will involve both series. The large driver's pool of the Italian F4, this way, could contribute to the Formula Regional growth, allowing the drivers to easily go ahead through their path, experiencing a higher category.

Re-confirmation of the appointments on the European F1 circuits of Hungaroring, RedBullRing and Monza for both series, while the Formula Regional European Championship - the only championship after the F4 having the FIA certification – which has an additional round, will be back again in Paul Ricard and Barcelona, F1 circuits as well. The other appointments will be held in Italy, in Vallelunga, Imola and Mugello.
