

Imola, free practices concluded

Vesti is the fastest in Formula Regional, Hauger and Edgar in F4

Rome, 30th August 2019 – The free practices have ended at the Enzo e Dino Ferrari Circuit of Imola, in a sunny and hot summer day. In Formula Regional European Championship certified by FIA Frederik Vesti (Prema Powerteam) wins both sessions, with 1'40.425 in practice 1 and 1'40.406 in practice 2. The second fastest is his teammate Enzo Fittipaldi, who stops the clock at 1'40.626 and 1'40.406 in the two sessions. Igor Fraga (DR Formula by RP Motorsport), world e-Sport FIA champion, signs a good time, the third-best in the second free practice (1'40.480).

In the Italian F4 Championship powered by Abarth Dennis Hauger (Van Amersfoort Racing) brings home the first session with 1'46.095, followed by the championship leader Gianluca Petecof (Prema Powerteam) with 1'46.649 and Jonny Edgar (Jenzer Motorsport) with 1'46.664. Edgar is also the fastest of the second free practice, with 1'46.223.

The two qualifying races will be exceptionally held in the afternoon, facilitating the conduct of the 4 races scheduled in the next two days, with an organizational effort by the federation to allow the young talents to enjoy the full championship experience, considered to be an important moment of growth. Formula Regional European Championship certified by FIA drivers will go first, at 17.30 and 17.55, while Italian F4 Championship powered by Abarth will re-start with the official qualifying races at 18.20 and 18.45.
