

First day of collective tests at Hungaroring

Best lap time for Hasburg with Van Amersfoort Racing

Rome, 16th of June 2019 – In the first day of the collective tests weekend of the Formula Regional European Championship certified by FIA on the Hungarian circuit of Hungaroring, it is Ferdinand Hasburg to set the fastest lap time of the day in the last session of today's 4, with 1'40.402, followed by teammate Sophia Floersch, with 1'41.203 and third, just behind, Marcos Siebert (US Racing), with 1'41.375. Drivers of the Formula Regional have been testing together with F4 drivers, and so have been separated into two groups.

In a hot and sunny day with dry track lap times have improved in the afternoon sessions, with cooler air and track to give the opportunity to drivers to set best lap times in the last sessions of the day.

Tomorrow another day of testing with 4 session, 2 in the morning and 2 in the afternoon.
