

The number of participants to the new championship keeps growing

Tom Beckhäuser with Technorace ready to race at the Hungaroring

Rome, 05 June 2019 – The number of drivers registered for the new Formula Regional European Championship certified by FIA, the new series which already has 9 teams enrolled, is still growing. It is Tom Beckhäuser the new driver who will race in the car of the team Technorace.

Beckhäuser will make his debut in this series at the Hungaroring, at Mogyoród, in Hungary, in the weekend from the 5th to the 7th of July. The young driver, class 1999 and born in Prague, has already raced in the Italian Formula 4 in 2016 and 2017 and has participated last year to the F3 Asian Championship. In this new challenge, Beckhäuser will race with the racing number #95 and he will be driving Technorace's single-seater already on the 15th and the 16th of June for the official tests.

The team declares to be confident for the debut in the important championship and promises the maximum effort to push the Tatuus at its full capacity.
