

Vesti again with final thrill

With an unbeatable pace the Danish wins race 3 and passes the finish line with a broken suspension

Hungaroring, 7 July 2019 – Frederik Vesti (Prema Powerteam) at the Hungaroring has an unbeatable pace compared to all rivals and wins race 3, even having a broken front suspension in the last couple of corners, incredible! It is true that the technical problem is present only the very last curves of the race, and for just nothing the second classified, teammate English Olli Caldwell, does not manage to make the day overtaking Vesti in the last two bends. It is though also true that Vesti in race 3 has nobody capable of keeping his pace, with Caldwell losing enough time in the first laps of the race to not be able in any way to recover in the remaining laps, and also Vesti obtaining best lap times one after the other Third is still a Prema Powerteam driver, that this weekend has been the unbeatable team of the lot. Fourth is an excellent Igor Fraga (DR Formula by RP Motorsport), who unfortunately missed race 2 for technical problems. Behind his teammate Raul Guzman and Sophia Floersch (Van Amersfoort Racing).

Next racing weekend will be held on the Austrian track of Redbullring from 12 to 14 July.
