

FP2 at Paul Ricard

Prema in front in the FP2 with Caldwell, Vesti and Fittipaldi

Le Castellet, 12 April 2019 – On a more and more dry track with increasing grip lap times decrease fast and at the end of FP2 “podium” is all by Prema Powerteam, with Olli Caldwell who sets the time at 1:58.976, followed by Frederik Vesti with 1:58.981 and Enzo Fittipaldi (1:59.015).

Fourth is a very good David Schumacher (1:59.855), son of Ralf Schumacher, with team US Racing.

With the 3 Prema drivers in only 39 thousands of a second, qualifying sessions will be extremely intense, even though after FP2 rain has started falling intensely, so at 16.25 when qualifying will start, most probably the track will be wet and performances could definitely change.
