

Marcos Flack with R-ace GP in the 2022 Italian F4 15 years old Australian driver will drive with the French team

Rome, February 2nd, 2022 – Australian-born 15 years old driver Marcos Flack will race for the French team R-ace GP in the upcoming season of Italian F4 Championship certified by FIA. Flack debuted when only 5 years old in a karting competition in 2011 and he hasn't stopped racing since then.

He continued then with his karting career taking part in many WSK series and cups, as well as national karting championships.

He debuted in F4 single-seater in 2021, racing in the British series where he ended up 11th and, ADAC. Last year, he also had a foretaste of high level competition with Italian F4 Championship taking part in the 3 races of the last round at the Cathedral of Speed, in Monza.

This year, he will compete under the French flag of R-ace GP alongside previously announced Danish driver Frederik Lund.

Flack will be taking part in this journey with great ambitions indeed: "I am really looking forward to be racing with R-ace GP this year in the Italian Championship. To be a valued member of such a high-performing Formula Regional European Championship by Alpine team, as a team we will be aiming to make R-ace GP a dominant winning force in Formula 4 like they are in FRECA."
